1 Hunt for a good cause

2 Committed to help

Manulife Holdings Berhad group chief executive officer Mark Steven O'Dell (left) and PeopleGiving president Teoh Chie Lean (right) shaking hands to mark Manulife's three-year collaboration with the non-profit organisation. Manulife will be contributing RM100,000 each year to PeopleGiving in support of its day-to-day operations, which will include proper staffing so that its charitable initiatives may run smoothly. Through this sponsorship, Manulife's personnel will also be regularly involved in programmes such as the Hugs for Love and Library of Hope.

3 Feeding the underprivileged

(From left) 7-Eleven Malaysia brand executive Kimberly Law, Global Street Mission representative Joshua Vikneas, a recipient and 7-Eleven Malaysia marketing general manager Ronan Lee at the Mobile Street Feeding programme. Held in collaboration with non-governmental organisation Hub Asia and Global Street Mission, more than 20 volunteers had set up a mobile feeding station providing numerous packages of Fresh to Go, 7-Eleven Malaysia's proprietary food product, to the underprivileged and disabled community in Brickfields, Kuala Lumpur. The effort was part of its corporate social responsibility programme to give back to the community.
