

NEWS CLIPPING

Event	LENDING A HAND
Publication	THE STAR
Page/ Section	STAR METRO
Date	17 FEBRUARY 2016
Time

1 Boosting education

(From left) Smart Reader Worldwide chief executive officer Datuk Seri Dr Richard Ong, Tengku Puan Temenggong Kelantan Datuk Tunku Noor Hayati Tunku Abdul Rahman Putra and Smart Reader Worldwide group executive director Datin Seri Datuk Dr K H Wang at a mock cheque presentation ceremony in Smart Reader Kids Kota Baru. Smart Reader Worldwide presented preschool education scholarships of RM185,000 to 50 underprivileged children from Yayasan Sultan Kelantan Darulnaim, Rumah Kanak-kanak Mini Kelantan and Jabatan Pembangunan Wanita Negeri Kelantan through its National One Child One Hope Education Scholarship Programme. This is in efforts to enhance English literacy skills among children in Kelantan and provide them with access to quality preschool education. The financial aid includes school fees, uniforms, shoes, schoolbags, books, worksheets and other learning materials.

2 Lending a hand

7-Eleven Malaysia Marketing general manager Ronan Lee (back row, far left) with volunteers from 7-Eleven Malaysia, NGO Hub Asia and Sunway College at Kirtarsh Handicapped and Disabled Children's Home. Located in Bukit Beruntung, Rawang, 7-Eleven worked together with NGO Hub Asia to sort out the generous donations received from the public after the shelter caught fire recently. The extra items were segregated and priced for a Garage Sale, which will be held soon to raise funds for the home. The home strives to provide special education, shelter, medication, food and vocational training to about 40 residents from all racial and religious backgrounds.

3 Honouring high achiever

Parents V. Suppama and D. Narayanasamy accepting the Posthumous Degree for their late daughter, N Kalaivani, from City University College of Science and Technology pro-chancellor Professor Emeritus Datuk Dr Sham Sani (left) at Citv UCs