

NEWS CLIPPING

Event	HELPING FURRY FRIENDS
Publication	THE STAR
Page/ Section
Date	4 MAY 2016
Time

director Natalie Cheng, Zensyo Japan principal Koshin Matsumoto, Parkson Edutainment World creative director Tommy Swee, Parkson Group executive chairman Tan Sri William Cheng, Parkson Edutainment World executive director Adam Ooi, Pygmalion Japan developer Ito Kyo, Parkson Edutainment World managing director Adam Swee, Royale Unicorn Education (RUE) principal Chloe Kuan and Cambridge English for Life regional franchise director Michael Yong launching the first RUE international learning centre at Parkson Maju Junction Shopping Mall. RUE is the first learning centre in Malaysia to adopt the Pygmalion teaching method that focuses on whole brain development and the Zensyo Maitreya nursery approach from Japan.

HELPING FURRY FRIENDS

7-Eleven Malaysia marketing general manager Ronan Lee (second from left) and staff together with volunteers from NGO Hub Asia on a visit to the PAWS animal shelter in Subang. Working together with NGO Hub, the visit was part of the company's corporate social responsibility activities to give back to the community. Besides cleaning up the shelter and grooming the animals, items such as cat litter were also contributed.

